To 'Winterize' Berlin Airlift

Plan To Train Flyers In Montana

Berlin, Oct. 12—(AP)—The U. S. Air Force announced plans today to "winterize" the Berlin airlift.

Several hundreds of reserve officers who volunteer will be given special training at Great Falls, Mont., in visual and instrument flying and assigned to the airlift, the announcement said. These pilots, copilots and engineers can revert to inactive duty next spring.

Another announcement said Douglas Globemaster transports will be put into a regular shuttle service over the Atlantic carrying special high priority cargo from Westover Base, in Massachusetts, to Frankfurt to the air lift. The service will speed up the movement of critical supplies.

Will Expand Over Summer

Maj. Gen. William H. Tunner, commander of the U. S. airlift task force who flew troops and supplies over the "hump" from Burma to China, declares the airlift not only can continue through the winter but can even expand its operations over the summer.

Through radar, the radio eye, the army has perfected a system of "ground controlled approach" (GCA) which can bring a plane to a safe landing even when the pilot cannot see the ground. Watching a radar screen showing the plane, a ground pilot in the control tower can "talk" a plane down until its wheels hit the ground.

Air officers say GCA can land a plane every 3.8 minutes in Berlin.

Grounded 1/5 Of Time

Special de-icing equipment is being installed on airlift planes. The army estimates from a study of weather records that airlift planes would be grounded only 20 per cent of the time in the worst weather Germany has to offer.

With these preparations being made the army figures it can fly in enough planes when the weather permits to make up for lost time.

To make the most of good flying time, the airlift is being converted completely to four-engine C-54 Skymasters which carry 10 tons. The two-engine C-47 Dakotas which carry three tons are being retired.

Russ Stand On Blockade

American officials are confident they and the British can hit a daily average of 6,000 tons a day even in winter.

Taegliche Rundschau, the Soviet military administration's official newspaper, declared today the blockade of Berlin would not be lifted until the western powers withdraw their currency from circulation in Berlin.

The Russians again announced big-scale aerial activity—including gunnery drills and parachute jumping in the air corridors and flying drills over Berlin—in continuation of what western officers regard as an effort to harass the airlift.

Barkley Accuses GOP Of Splitting Laborers, Farmers

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—(AP)—Senator Alben W. Barkley, democratic vice presidential nominee, accused the Republican party today of seeking to divide the laboring groups and farmers into two groups.

Addressing an estimated 1,000 Californians, Barkley said republican candidates have told farmers that high living costs are caused by high wages paid to working men, and have told labor audiences that high farm income is to blame.

"Any man who seeks to drive a wedge between the farmer and the laboring man is not worthy of the support of either," the Kentucky senator said.

Barkley said a comparison of the records of both major political parties would show conclusively the democrats always have been the best friends of farmers and working men.

Report Drastic Teacher Shortage

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—The United States will need 1,390,000 new teachers in the next 10 years, a commission of educators said today.

At the present rate of training, the commission added, the nation is only going to get about 200,000. Many of these, the report said, will be "poor ones" able to offer little more than "mailed service."

Eleven educators compose the national commission on teacher education and professional standards—a national education association unit—which reported at a news conference today on its recently completed survey of educational needs.

Lewis Adjourns UMW Meet With Blast At Dewey

Cincinnati, Oct. 12—(AP)—John L. Lewis closed the United Mine Workers convention today with a crack at Republican Thomas E. Dewey for defending the Taft-Hartley Act.

Lewis referred to Dewey as "some politician" who had spoken recently in favor of the Labor-Management Relations Act. The remark jolted many of the 3,000 delegates who had listened for more than a week to speeches attacking Mr. Dewey's Democratic opponent—President Truman.

There was a laughter and a round of applause when Lewis said of Dewey: "That man just never read the act."

The Republican presidential candidate last night at Pittsburgh said the act preserved labor's right to band together.

"The act does just the reverse," said Lewis. "If he will take a printed copy of the statute as printed in committee form by the government printing office and read it, he will find one line in the preamble which says labor has the right to organize."

But following that are 71 pages of restrictions that dare labor to try and organize.

Lewis previously had told the miners that Mr. Truman, who twice prosecuted Lewis and the miners in the coal strikes, was an enemy of the union.

Dewey Promises 'Housecleaning' To Illinois Crowd

Carmi, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, barnstorming across southern Illinois, told a crowd of some 6,000 persons here tonight that January will bring "the biggest and best housecleaning this nation has ever seen."

The Republican presidential candidate appeared on the platform of his special train with Mrs. Dewey, White County Republican Chairman S. R. Stanley and Illinois GOP Congressmen Roy Clippinger and Charles Vorse.

Dewey said the January housecleaning he forecast would bring "results that will carry their influence to all parts of the world and win the peace."

"The present administration is divided against itself," he said. "It asked congress for $25,000,000 to build the Red it itself had placed in government. I will guarantee that after January 1st there will be no Reds in our government."

The governor brought his campaign for re-election to a 13th congressional district Republican rally. "The state has underwritten a large share of the cost of the proposed superhighways for Chicago—Congress street, the northwest highway to Douglas airport, the south-west highway, and others," Green said. "The state has agreed to pay one-third of the cost of these highways within the City of Chicago and one-half in Cook county outside Chicago."

Perhaps the most important of all our accomplishments for the Chicago of tomorrow is our splendid state housing program. Not only have Chicago and Cook county received more than $20,000,000 in state housing funds, but we have provided the first practical program under which private enterprise capital is undertaking the great task of rebuilding Chicago slums and replacing them with modern rental housing units."

Arrest Forty-Two In Crackdown On Negro Smuggling

Miami, Fla., Oct. 12—(AP)—Forty-two persons have been taken into custody in a drive against the smuggling of Jamaican negroes into this country through the use of false birth certificates, the immigration service announced today.

Walter S. Miller, district director of immigration, said the Jamaicans were charged as high as $350 each for the certificates.

The certificates were obtained in South Carolina where only two witnesses are needed in obtaining delayed birth papers.

Miller identified Edward Emmanuel Stewart, 52-year-old real estate salesman of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., as the alleged leader of the scheme. Stewart is a native of Jamaica but a naturalized American citizen.

Suspend Professor At Okla. A.&M. On Sodomy Charge

Stillwater, Okla., Oct. 12—(AP)—Dr. R. Chester Hughes, 18, a professor of zoology at Oklahoma A. & M. college, was suspended today after a sodomy charge was filed on complaint of a 20-year-old student.

The professor has been at the college since 1930. Dr. Philip Donnell, vice president, said.

Donnell said no investigation of the charge is being made by college officials at this time.

He said action will await outcome of Hughes' trial.

The charge against Hughes was filed by County Attorney Clifton Kwan, on a complaint by Stewart Hunter, a student.

U.S. Disarmed Too Quickly

ENGLISHWOMAN, BALD SINCE CHILDHOOD, APPEALS FOR NEW WIG

Cambridge, Eng., Oct. 12—(AP)—An old woman who had been bald since she was six appealed to the government today for a new wig. She's going to get it too, under the tax-supported National Health Service.

S. W. Davis, regional officer of the Pensions Ministry, told the story today.

The woman wrote that "she bought a second hand wig many years ago, but that it's now worn out."

"We have replied telling her that she can get a new wig free through us if she goes to a hospital first to get the necessary certificate for the health service. She will be provided in fact, not with one but two wigs, as a wig occasionally has to be cleaned."

Draft Officials Will Publicize Inductees' Names

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—Selective service officials said today that names of men selected for induction may be made public, but cautioned against releasing such information prematurely.

The officials told a reporter they had advised State Selective Service directors that no legal barrier to disclosing the names exists in the present draft law. The World War II draft act barred the public naming of men slated for induction on grounds of security.

One official, in cautioning against premature release of the names, said that frequently appeals are pending when a man takes his preinduction physical examination. He added that many men who have passed the examination, or even those who have been ordered to an induction center, will not go into the army.

He and other officials suggested that the names of men to be taken into the army be made public the night before induction.

AFL Meat Cutters Confer With Swift On Wage Dispute

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—AFL meat cutters and butcher workers talked wages today with Swift & Company.

After a conference of several hours the meeting was concluded with no announcement from either the company or union. The union, the Amalgamated Association of meat cutters and butcher workers, did not make public its wage proposals.

Earl Jimerson, union president, said that after the Swift meeting the wage negotiating committee went into a separate session. No more meetings with the company are in prospect, both sides said.

The union claims to represent 40,000 workers in the meat industry. Its master agreement with Swift, Armour, Wilson and Cudahy does not expire until Aug. 11, 1949, but the wage question can be reopened during the life of the contract.

Henry Wallace Will Attempt Tour Of Georgia

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Henry Wallace is going to Georgia. This is a state he missed on his recent southern campaign trip where he spoke before mixed white and negro audiences and was egged and shouted down at some meetings by hecklers.

The Progressive party announced that its presidential candidate will interrupt his regular campaign schedule for a flight to Dalton, Ga., on Saturday, Oct. 16.

He will address between 800 and 900 preachers at a national meeting of the Church of God. Immediately after the talk he will fly to Michigan to resume his schedule.

C. B. "Beany" Baldwin, Wallace's campaign director said in a statement.

"The Progressive party has encountered violent opposition in Georgia where party members have been kidnapped and beaten," he said, however, that the party is assured a place on the Georgia ballot, more than 80,000 persons having signed petitions for that purpose.

OHIOANS CAN VOTE FOR DEWEY TWICE

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Republican News, official GOP organ, said today it will be perfectly legal to vote for Tom Dewey twice next month—provided you live in Sandusky County, Ohio.

An attorney bearing the same name as the republican presidential nominee is running for county prosecutor. Guess what ticket.

Operation Success On 3-Day-Old Baby

Philadelphia, Oct. 12—(AP)—The children's hospital of Philadelphia today disclosed that a successful major operation was performed on a three-day old premature boy weighing only four and one-half pounds.

The operation was to remedy a serious congenital defect in which the esophagus opened into the windpipe and nourishment taken by the child went into the lungs. The condition, the hospital said, is known as a tracheo-esophageal fistula.

The baby, John Weiss, Jr., was born Sept. 9 and the operation was performed Sept. 12. The hospital said the baby now weighs five pounds, 11 ounces and will be discharged from the hospital this week.

He is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. John Weiss of Stroudsburg, Pa.

Austin Blames Russ For No Arms Control

Paris, Oct. 12—(AP)—The United States declared today disarmament is impossible in a world where the Soviet battle cry is "wreck and destroy."

The United States already has disarmed too far and too fast after the last war, said Warren R. Austin, the No. 2 delegate to the United Nations General Assembly.

In a gloves-off speech to the assembly's political committee Austin said the United States will support a British resolution pinning blame for lack of control on world armaments on Russia, and a Syrian proposal that the U. N. commission for conventional arms get back on the job.

Offers To Put Cards On Table

Russia's Andrei Vishinsky countered with an apparently conciliatory move. In a speech peppered with typical "Vishinskyisms" he offered to put the Soviet cards on arms reduction on the table—if the United Nations adopts the Russian proposal for an immediate one-third cut in armaments of the five major powers.

Other major developments in the U. N. assembly hails as American policy stiffened toward the Russians were:

1. The United States, Britain and France worked on details of a resolution calling on the Security Council to act in the Berlin dispute. The Americans were reported impatient at the delay on this hot question.

2. The United States, France, Britain and China teamed with four other countries in an atomic subcommittee in endorsing a demand that the assembly approve the majority reports on world atomic control. Russia fought the move all the way.

Russ Won't Cooperate

Austin told the political committee that the nations of the world could not disarm or even slash armaments while the Russians refused to cooperate. He said that under present conditions of world fear and insecurity it was impossible to set up effective systems of control and reduction of arms.

He said the world situation is too grave to permit further play with words.

He said the communist slogan changed overnight from "work and production" in the first post-war days to "wreck and destroy." He said that Russia through world communism is working to maintain a "state of constant turmoil and economic chaos."

"Are we dreaming?" Austin demanded of the committee. "Can such tactics, such actions, such a record be those of one of the founders of the United Nations?"

Query Republican Precinct Captain In Granata Murder

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—A Republican precinct captain was questioned today in connection with the brutal slaying of William John Granata and was released after voluntarily taking a lie detector test.

Granata, Republican candidate for clerk of the circuit court of Cook (Chicago) county, was hacked to death Friday at his home in his home atop a loop office building.

The man questioned today was William N. Xanthas, 52, real estate broker and captain of the 55th precinct of the 27th ward, the slain man's home ward.

Xanthas was injected into the investigation by an anonymous telephone call to police headquarters. The caller suggested police check "the workers' party books in the 27th ward" for the name of a person believed only person on the list whose name started with an X.

Police said the lie detector test indicated Xanthas had no knowledge of the killing.

Bavarian Governor Declares America Licking Commies

Detroit, Oct. 12—(AP)—Murray D. Van Wagoner, military governor of Bavaria, declared today that Americans "on the front line" in Germany have given communism "the greatest licking of its life."

In an address prepared for delivery before a Knights of Columbus anniversary banquet here, the former governor of Michigan said Russia's failure to blockade Berlin has been the western democracies' "greatest triumph."

"They (the Russians) thought the blockade would be the end of us," Van Wagoner said. "But the American and British answer was the airlift. There has been a great prestige builder for us. Russian propaganda has backfired."

Declaring that war is not imminent, Van Wagoner said:

"Russia doesn't want a hot war. . . . It's a cold war which we are recognizing for exactly what it is. They want to win a war, without fighting it," he added.

Van Wagoner said the critical situation in Berlin has overshadowed progress in the reconstruction of the rest of Germany.

French Cut Power As Coal Miners' Strike Continues

Paris, Oct. 12—(AP)—Dawn to dusk power cuts were put into effect throughout France today, and the Cominform was charged with financing as well as inspiring the strike wave which has kept coal mines idle nine days.

The conservative newspaper France Soir said it had learned from government sources that the communist information bureau, with headquarters in Romania, already has spent 120,000,000 francs ($400,000) to keep the strike going.

Just how the funds were brought here, the paper said, is unknown. Interior Minister Jules Moch told a meeting of the Socialist party last night the Cominform had ordered the current strikes with the aim of wrecking the European recovery program.

To save the dwindling stocks of coal, the government put into effect today electric power cuts throughout the nation.

Pleads Guilty In Federal Court On Bond Charges

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—Glenn Kilpatrick, 36, of Miami, Fla., pleaded guilty in federal court yesterday to illegal interstate transportation of $5,000 worth of negotiable bonds.

Federal Judge Fred L. Wham deferred sentence.

The bonds were identified as part of $40,000 worth of bonds taken in a May 23, 1947, burglary of the Coca-Cola Bottling company in Cairo. Only about $8,000 worth of the bonds were negotiable.

Kilpatrick was accused of transporting the bonds from Herrin, Ill., to St. Louis and New York. The former Herrin man was quoted by Sheriff Lawrence Cannon of Marion, Ill., as saying he won the bonds in a dice game and did not know they were stolen.

Otis Lucy, 35, of Cairo, similarly accused, pleaded innocent.

Order Organizer For Branch Of CIO Deported From U.S.

Washington, Oct. 12—(AP)—John Santo, Romanian born organizer for the CIO Transport Workers Union, has been ordered deported, the immigration service announced today.

The service Santo has committed three violations of the immigration laws: he entered the U.S. in 1927 as a student, but failed to maintain his exempt alien status as a student; he joined the Communist party after coming here, and he became affiliated with an organization (The Communist party) which advocated overthrow of the U.S. government.

Hearings in his case were held a year ago before immigration commissioner Arthur Phelan of San Francisco. He lost an appeal to the immigration commissioner. He still can appeal to Attorney General Clark and the federal courts.

Since 1945, Santo has been international organizer for the transport workers. He formerly was secretary treasurer of the union.

Michael J. Quill, international president of the TWU, said in a statement in New York that Santo's deportation "will not serve the best interests of American civil liberties."

DP's TO AMERICA

Frankfurt, Germany, Oct. 12—(AP)—The first group of displaced persons to emigrate to the United States under the new DP law will leave Bremerhaven, Friday, U.S. officials said today. Poland has the largest number of emigrants in the group of 43 persons representing 11 nationalities.

Truman Talks At Springfield

KINDNESS PAYS? TELL IT TO THIS GUY!

Moultrie, Ga., Oct. 12—(AP)—Kindness pays? Phooey, says H. A. McAuley, owner of a suburban food store.

A good customer telephoned and asked for a ham. McAuley was fresh out. He gave his delivery driver some money and told him to pick up a ham downtown and deliver it.

While buying the ham, the driver got a ticket for double parking. En route to the customer's house, he stopped to talk with a friend. Somebody stole the ham.

Advance Guard Of Legionnaires Arrives At Miami

Miami, Fla., Oct. 12—(AP)—An advance guard of more than 1,000 legionnaires are here to lay the groundwork for the American Legion's 30th national convention which opens next Saturday.

The Legion's national headquarters in Indianapolis has shifted to Miami, bringing nearly its full staff of clerks, secretaries and office assistants. National commander James F. O'Neill arrived here Sunday.

Delegates are pouring in from all parts of the country and many of the 2,500 attending the national letter carriers' convention here now are remaining for the legion convocation.

First official action begins Thursday (Oct. 14) when some 600 committee members, including the large resolutions assignment committee, hold pre-convention meetings.

Brooks Invades Chicago Area In Reelection Quest

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Senator C. Wayland Brooks (R-Ill.) brought his campaign for reelection to Cook county today.

Except for appearances in Springfield and Decatur the night of Oct. 18, and a few other speaking engagements, Brooks said, he will devote the rest of the campaign to rural towns in Cook county and to the Chicago metropolitan area.

"Despite a delay of five weeks in the launching of my campaign because of the recall of congress by the president, I am supremely confident of a complete victory for the Republicans, not only in Illinois but in the nation," he said in a statement.

Former Crime Terrorist Asks Hospital Release

Chicago, Oct. 12—(AP)—Irwin Kadens, 37, former neck pistol clerk who became a "three-state crime wave" in 1942, sought his release today from the Illinois Security hospital at Menard.

Kadens, who once was described by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover as "one of the most dangerous and roughest criminals at large," was committed to the hospital in 1943 after being adjudged insane.

He had been accused of a long list of crimes including rape, kidnapping and 75 robberies.

In a petition for a writ of habeas corpus which he prepared himself, Kadens contended he now is a "sane, normal and intelligent person" who "never knowingly or deliberately committed a crime in my life."

The petition was sent to Federal Judge John P. Barnes and was assigned to Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan. No date has been set for hearing.

Kadens' crime spree started after he deserted from the army at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill. He later burglarized the home of a Detroit policeman, taking a uniform, gun, badge and handcuffs. He kidnapped a Detroit couple, forcing them to drive him to Chicago. He committed robberies in Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, before police captured him in Chicago.

COMPOSITE WALL STREET PICTURE IS ENOUGH TO SCARE US SILLY

It may turn out that 1948 was, among other things, the year of the great Wall Street mystery. It's a mystery to us, at any rate. And the more we read the political speeches and the news from abroad, the more we keep asking ourselves: What is Wall Street?

We don't mean the canyon-like thoroughfare and its neighborhood, which the New York Stock Exchange and some of our biggest banking and brokerage houses call home. We mean the group of men who are allegedly running the country in a manner which, if you believe all you read, is truly amazing.

Let's take Russia's Wall Street first. Russia's Wall Street is spoiling for a fight. It is the author of America's "imperialistic" plans to enslave all Europe, crush the Soviet Union, and make itself richer in the process.

Then there is Henry Wallace's Wall Street. Mr. Wallace is a capitalist and admits it. What's more, his left-wing admirers boast, he's the only one of the presidential candidates who ever met a payroll. But Mr. Wallace's Wall Street is not only pining for war and plotting Russia's downfall. It is also running this government. It's the head coach of the "war mongers," a group that seems to include all Americans except those who will vote for Mr. Wallace next month.

Now we come to Mr. Truman's Wall Street. That Wall Street is not running the government now, but it will be if the voters should elect Mr. Dewey.

We also have President Peron's Wall Street. The Argentine dictator says that there was a plot to assassinate him and overthrow his government, hatched by a former American Embassy employee in Buenos Aires and "foreign capitalistic interests." The boys enclosed in quotation marks surely couldn't be anybody else but Wall Street. President Peron's Wall Street, he says, "wanted another Bogota here."

This composite picture of Wall Street resembles the composite picture of the elephant given by the six blind Indians after each had examined a different portion of the beast with his hands.

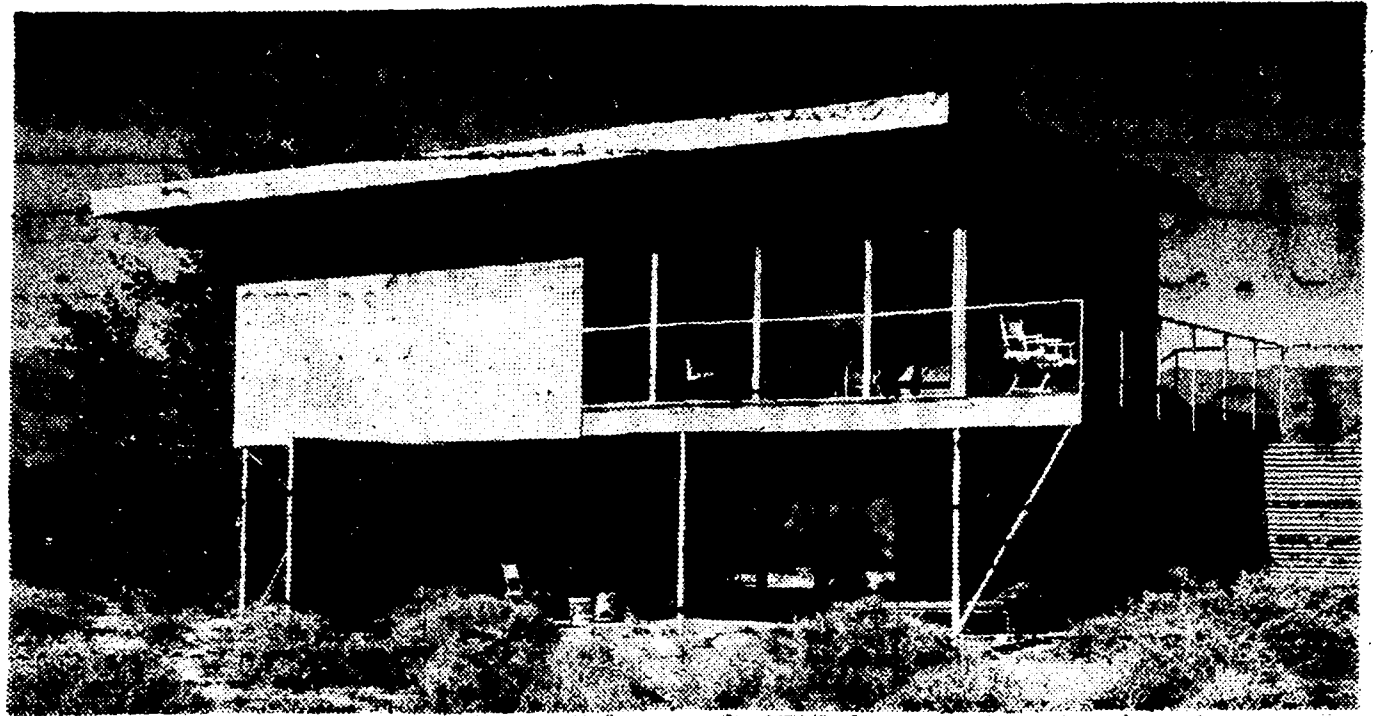

Judging from this picture, Wall Street is violently opposed to both the left and the right. It is planning a war of extermination against Communist Russia. But it also planned to exterminate a fascist-type dictator and create "another Bogota" in Buenos Aires.

The composite Wall Street is running our government and dictating its policy. Only it isn't, really. It's really working its head off to turn out the present government so it can run the next one.

We've noticed that the Wall Street stock market takes a dive any time that a war scare grows really severe. We've also noticed that the big bankers and brokers seem to prosper, along with most everybody else, when there is no depression and industry and agriculture are busy and people have money to spend. But, from the evidence above, this probably doesn't explain anything.

All we can say is that if the composite picture of Wall Street is anywhere near true, it sure is a wonder that the big bankers and brokers could be so dumb and still have made all that money.

New Exhibit Highlights American Home

The exhibition now being shown at Tanner Library at Illinois college is entitled "Modern American Homes" and introduces many problems relative to building and construction and offers various solutions to these problems.

Prepared and circulated by the Museum of Modern Art, the exhibition consists of 15 wooden panels, containing photographs, cartoons by Robert C. Osborne, and text. The panels are supplemented by eight large separate photographs.

The photographs show the variety of contemporary architectural solutions, as opposed to the standard and inflexible form of traditional houses. The exhibition demonstrates the fundamental principle of modern architecture, that the house may be designed to suit individual needs.

The exhibition labels, based on the book "If You Want to Build a House" by Elizabeth B. Mock, present a simple, informal analysis of problems in home planning, designing and construction, and discuss the advantages, as well as the disadvantages, of modern design.

Specific panels illustrate such points as "The Architect Starts with Individual Needs," "Cooking Can Be Fun," "Where Shall We Eat," "A Room of One's Own," "Outdoor Living," "Light and Air," "Modern Architecture Can Make A Small House Seem Large," "An Opened House." The cartoons point up the problems involved and particularly emphasize fads and outmoded solutions as well as psychological hazards in building a house.

"Modern American Homes" will be shown at Tanner Library until October 25, when it will continue its tour throughout the country under the auspices of The Museum of Modern Art, New York. Library hours are from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Saturday, and 7 to 10 p. m. Monday through Thursday, and 2 to 5 p. m. on Sunday.

Your Friends Judge You By The Things You Worry About

By HAL BOYLE

New York, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Have you had a fresh worry lately?

Or are you one of those impossible people who go through life, day after day, worrying about the same old stale worries?

Don't you realize that in the fresh bright world of today you can't go around wrinkling your brow over the problems that bedeviled your ancestors?

Wake up and worry! Worry about something new and different. You may not know it, but your friends judge you by the things you worry about.

It isn't enough anymore just to worry about food, clothing and shelter, and keeping your children out of jail. People were worrying about those things yesterday and a hundred years ago.

Cleanse Your Mind
Rid your mind of those old, tired, some motheaten worries.

How can you do this? It is very simple. You just join the Boyle worry-of-the-month club.

The average man is too preoccupied with the problems of daily living to think up impressive new worries. He is in a worry rut. He is just an ordinary worry wart. But every man has within him tremendous possibilities for worry—he can become a worry giant. He only needs to have his hidden energies unleashed.

This is what the Boyle worry-of-the-month club undertakes to do. Every four weeks our board of experts looks over the world situation and picks out a tantalizing worry most people never thought of. We will send you this worry on a trial basis—without obligation. If you like it, you keep it and fret about it for a month.

Free Bonus Worry
The following month we will send you another worry. If you take four of our worries in a row, we will send you a free bonus worry—as long as the supply lasts.

One of the best features of the Boyle worry-of-the-month club is that we guarantee to send you a worry that you as an individual positively can do nothing about. We believe that is the only kind of a worry that brings enduring satisfaction. Because certainly there is no fun in worrying about something you can do anything about. It doesn't make sense to worry about things you can solve yourself.

Most Popular Worry
Our worry-of-the-month club has rejected such mundane and obvious worries as whether there will be a third world war or whether the atom bomb can wipe out the human race. That type of worry will never make you the life of the party.

One of our most popular worries last year was this:
"Do you know that at any moment the globe may tip its axis a few degrees, and everybody in the world be frozen like an ice cream cone?"

Now there is a good simple honest worry for a hostess to spring on her guests at a cocktail party. The more they drink the more they will think about this worry. It will take their minds off any personal worries they have been frittering away their time with.

Worry-of-the-Month
Our current worry-of-the-month is lifted bodily from an ad in the book edition of the New York Times: "Shall weeds inherit the earth?"

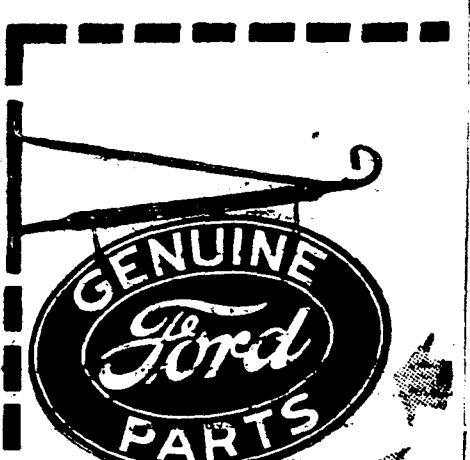

A question to ponder without delay? Well, there you are. Never thought of that did you? But, year after year, weeds have been growing up all around you in a green and devilish plot to destroy mankind. You thought you could take chlorophyll or leave it alone, did you? Forget it. Start worrying today about weeds. Tomorrow may be too late.

And join up now with the Boyle worry-of-the-month club. Our goal: To supply a care for the fellow who says he doesn't have a care in the world. It's the worrier who wins.

Couple Indicted For Robbery At Pearl

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—A Rock Island city policeman was indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday in an outgrowth of a beating he allegedly gave a man being held in the city jail.

The policeman, James A. Swift, was charged with depriving James E. Simpson of his constitutional right of immunity from violence at the hands of law enforcement authorities.

The indictment said that Simpson, a negro, who was taken to the city jail following an automobile accident in November, 1947, was struck with a blackjack and lost the sight of one eye.

Another of 17 persons named in indictments was Thomas R. Sulverski, charged with sending threatening letters to Miss Irene Garvey of Springfield in an attempt to extort $3,000.

FBI agents arrested Sulverski, 24, of Springfield, last month shortly after he allegedly wrote Miss Garvey she would be killed by hand grenades unless she turned over the money.

Also indicted were: Virgil Ralph Battershell and Sarah Leona Gordon of Alton, charged with looting postoffices at Shipman, Medora, Cottage Hills and Pearl of cash and government property totaling more than $800. In addition, the pair was accused of attempting to burglarize the Godfrey postoffice.

Elmer E. and Miriam Boyles, doing business as Boyles tavern, Havana, charged with adulterating whisky and failing to keep required records of liquor purchases.

Butter-nut BREAD'S GOOD IDEAS

KITCHEN TRICK

FRUIT SALAD is especially attractive when served in a melon ring. Peel a cantaloupe, halve, remove the seeds and slice melon in rings. Dice the remaining ends of the melon and use in salad mixture.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

FOR EXTRA smooth cheese sauce, run the cheese through the food grinder instead of grating it. Then run a few crackers through to clean the grinder—which incidentally gives you some cheese-flavored cracker crumbs.

RECIPE

ROSY SUMMER SALAD

1 c. cond. tomato soup
3 pkgs. cream cheese
2 Tbsp. gelatin
1/2 c. cold water
1 c. mayonnaise
1 1/2 c. chopped celery
1/2 green pepper, minced
8 stuffed olives, sliced
1 onion, minced

Soften gelatin in cold water. Bring soup to boiling point, add cream cheese, stir until smooth. Add softened gelatin and water. When mixture is partly firm, add mayonnaise and mixed vegetables. Chill in individual molds. Serves 10.

FAIR WEATHER HINT

FOR SUNNY "get-out-of-the-kitchen" days, a girl's best friend is Butter-nut White Bread. Makes quick lunch and supper sandwiches, toasted or fresh-from-the-wrapper. You can have plenty of variety, nourishment and downright good eating!

Tut, tut nothing but Butter-nut Bread

12 Leading Doctors Complete Study of Rheumatism, Arthritis

In a 48 page booklet, a committee of 12 of the nation's leading doctors have issued a complete report of their study of rheumatism and arthritis, covering a period of many months of medical research. From their findings a formula for the quick relief of rheumatic pain was developed by a well-known pharmacist.

This formula, called Ru-Tel was first tested by physicians, hospitals and clinics and has achieved remarkable results in relieving the pain of rheumatism, arthritis and neuritis. They found that Ru-Tel Tablets are pleasant to take, do not upset the stomach—in most cases give quick, soothing relief, sometimes overnight. Now, these Ru-Tel Tablets are available, without prescription through all drug stores. First bottle must help or your money refunded.

Injured Northwestern Jittery Over Weekend Date With Wolverines

Chicago, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Northwestern's Wildcat know that Michigan's Wolverines won't be any bigger than Minnesota, but they certainly expect them to be tougher.

"The Cats 'long hope' is to get the Wolverines 'under pressure,'" Wildcat Coach Bob Voigts and Scout Waldo Fisher Tuesday worried in best professional manner before the Chicago football writers over the Herald-Examiner's Wildcat-Wolverine game before 85,000 at Ann Arbor Saturday.

The one hopeful flicker was Fisher's observation that "if Michigan gets under pressure, it's ball-handling isn't so good." But that was based, Fisher admitted, on Michigan's opening 13-7 win over Michigan State—a bit of ancient history in view of the 40-0 Wolverine romp over Purdue last Saturday.

Wildcats Crippled
Voigts, whose Wildcats have howled over UCLA, Purdue and Minnesota, told the writers that "crimples and all, we'll show up for this big one."

The 32-year-old Purple boss said he hoped Northwestern's offense would perk better against Michigan than it did against Minnesota last Saturday. The Cats erased a 16-0 deficit and won 19-16 from the Gophers.

Northwestern made strategy blunders against Minnesota, Voigts said, but displayed great courage—not to mention a sharp passing attack—in bouncing back.

"That Minnesota line is something," said Voigts, "the ends are big. The tackles are bigger. And the line is bigger."

Monsters Minnesota Guard
When Northwestern lined up in front of Alex Sarkisian, not only did he block Sarkisian (215 pounds) from view, but also our two guards."

As for Northwestern's casualties, end Joe Zuravleff definitely will miss the Michigan game and halfback Ed Tunnicliffe, fullback Gasper Perrience, tackle Steve Sawie and center back Dick Flowers may see little or no action.

Zuravleff, Perrience and Flowers did not play against Minnesota. Scout Fisher, who watched Michigan score modest wins over Michigan State and Oregon and trounce Purdue said the Wolverines' improvement from week end to week end was painful for a Wildcat enemy to behold.

"If they keep it up, they'll be close to last year's greatness even without Bob Chappuis, Bump Elliott and Jack Welschberger," said Fisher.

Two Unit Systems
Contrary to popular belief, Fisher said, Michigan still is employing separate offensive and defensive units, each highly effective.

"Defensively, Michigan is not as heavy as last year, but still pretty rugged," said the scout. "Offensively, they're faster than the average team in the conference, from end-to-end."

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 12.—(AP)—After two unimpressive victories this season, football fans across the nation were ready to write Michigan off as a faded facsimile of the magical Rose Bowl team of 1947.

But a smashing 40-0 triumph over Purdue Saturday has changed all that.

Now they want to know, "How come?"

Here's an answer from Bennie G. Osterbaan, who took over when Fritz Crisler left coaching after a masterful trek through nine regular 1947 season games and a smashing Rose Bowl victory.

"We started this fall with a mixture of tried veterans, relatively untried veterans and some newcomers," Osterbaan said. "It took them two game to achieve team unity."

Big Shoes To Fill
Osterbaan pointed out that the new squad could not help but be conscious of its fabulous predecessor and an inherited victory streak of 14 games.

"On top of that," he said, "we had to reshuffle on the spot when Gene Derricotte was injured during the opening game against Michigan State. And I regard Derricotte as one of the best backs in the country."

It was in that narrow 13-7 victory that Charlie Ortmann, a blonde 183-pound sophomore from Milwaukee, Wis., stepped into Derricotte's shoes at tailback.

Foiled and capable, Ortmann took to it like a duck to water, rolling off a total of 276 yards on 13 completions of 22 passes from there through Michigan's third game of the season, Purdue.

Kosciusko Highly Rated
Another newcomer Osterbaan and the fans credit with working quickly into the Wolverine combination is Leo Kosciusko, a slippery, hard-hitting wingback.

Then, Osterbaan points out, there was the problem of working in other players like Bob Erban, replacement center of last year, who has taken over the offensive assignment completely while Veteran Dan Dowsky concentrates on defense.

Another adjustment was necessary to make a smooth-working cut out of Al Wahl, a 210-pound sophomore tackle from Oak Park, Ill.

"Wahl had to feel the thing out," Osterbaan said, "had to convince himself he could do the job."

Wahl did, turning in fine performances against Oregon and Purdue and providing one of the key reasons for the failure of either team to score on Michigan.

"There are others," said Osterbaan, "but that's the story. The team progressed as it found itself to be a team."

"It's the same in any job," he added, "if you do it well, the boss compliments you. You gain confidence and improve."

Pioneer Curve Ball Pitcher Dies At 93

Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—(AP)—George McConnell, believed to be one of the first pitchers to throw a curve ball, is dead at 93.

A baseball and billiard fan in his youth, later an Indian fighter and war veteran, he succumbed Sunday at the Sawtelle Veterans hospital after breaking his hip in a fall two months ago. He had been living with a niece in Los Angeles.

McConnell as a young man in Yreka, Calif., decided that the "English" put on a billiard ball could be applied to a baseball. He tried it, and perfected it through hours of throwing against a barn wall.

Then he organized a team at Ashburn, Ore. His puzzling pitches kept the club undefeated for several seasons. Baseball honored him with a McConnell Day about 12 years ago at New York's Polo Grounds.

Biggest Demonstration In Cleveland History Greet World Champs

BY LARRY SMITH
Cleveland, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Baseball happy Clevelanders staged the biggest and loudest demonstration in the city's history today as the world champion Indians were welcomed back from Boston.

The entire city let go with a bombardment of music, flowers, cheers and applause as the Indians were driven up historic Euclid avenue from the terminal in Public Square to University Circle, a 10-mile route.

The avenue was strewn with roses and confetti, early morning traffic was tied in a happy, howling knot of humanity.

100,000 Jam Square
Traffic Commissioner John R. Sammon said it was the biggest celebration he could remember. He estimated the crowd that jammed into Public Square at 100,000 and said at least another 50,000 lined the street as the motorcade raved out the avenue.

Mayor Thomas A. Burke, Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau and his wife, Della, and club president Bill Veck were seated in the first open car and drew the loudest cheers.

Sport-shirted Veck gave his fans a rousing cheer as he ducked confetti, candy kisses and flowers.

"It was never like this in Milwaukee," Veck laughed. "This is terrific."

The handsome, dark-haired Boudreau drew the attention of women and bobby soxers. Shouts of "There's Lou!" sprang up all along the line and everybody strained their vocal chords to the limit.

"Boudreau For President"
One woman carried a sign: "Boudreau for president and (Gene) Bearden for vice-president."

Business was at a standstill and school children forgot their studies and classrooms. Parochial school children had the day off in observance of Columbus Day and took full advantage of it. Public schools were not closed officially but teachers and principals didn't interfere with any pupils who wanted to see the parade.

The girls also wanted a glimpse of handsome Bearden, who pitched the team to one series victory and pulled it over a tough hurdle in the final game. However, Gene arrived last night by plane and wasn't there for the parade.

Third baseman Ken Keltner and pitcher Pat Patterson, the agile negro hurler, also flew home last night and the fans looked for them in vain.

Boudreau Insures Managerial Post With Great Fight

Boston, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Lou Boudreau is sitting on top of the world today, manager of Cleveland's first world championship team in 28 years.

Only one month ago, however, the popular playing pilot's position as Tribe boss was very shaky. He was ticketed for other pastures.

Bill Veck, sports-shirted president of the Tribe, had lost faith in Boudreau and his ball club. Greatly disappointed over Cleveland's midsummer slump which dropped the Indians from first to third place in the space of two weeks, Veck had given up hope of winning the American League flag.

"Only a miracle can help us now," Veck said after the St. Louis Browns had whipped the Indians in Cleveland to drop them four and a half games behind the Boston Red Sox on Sept. 12.

Never a great admirer of Boudreau's managerial talents, Veck had tried to trade the game's greatest shortstop to the Browns last winter. Cleveland fans, however, came to Lou's rescue, and forced Veck to retain him. Boudreau was even able to wrangle a two-year contract at $55,000 out of Veck.

From a source close to the Cleveland club, it was learned that Veck had made up his mind to make a managerial change after this season. Only a deal for Boudreau would accomplish that since Lou had informed Veck he never would play for the Indians under another skipper.

Happily, all that is forgotten now. Even if the Indians had lost to the Red Sox in the play-off game, Lou would still have been at the helm next year. The gallant fight made by the club against all possible odds during the past month, under Boudreau's fighting and able leadership, caused Veck to change his mind about Harvey, Illinois' gift to baseball.

Although Boudreau played an important part in the Indians' six-game victory over the Boston Braves, it was typical of him yesterday to give most of the credit to his rookie sensation, Gene Bearden. All Lou did was to collect six hits, four of them doubles, drive in three important runs and handle 25 chances flawlessly at shortstop. He figured in five of the Indians' nine double plays.

End Testimony In Federal, State Gasoline Dispute

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Testimony was concluded today in a natural gas dispute between the Federal Power Commission and Illinois Power Company. Oral arguments were set for tomorrow in federal court.

The federal agency seeks to enjoin the utility from disobeying an ordered 50 per cent curtailment in natural gas deliveries to 15 industrial users in Decatur, Danville and Champaign. The order was made Sept. 17 by Panhandle Pipe Line company.

Several witnesses defended Illinois Power's compliance with a subsequent Illinois Commerce Commission order directing the utility to ignore Panhandle's order.

E. S. Hight, Illinois Power vice president, and Warren Henry, chief engineer of the commerce commission, said until recently curtailments were ordered solely as result of mechanical failures or for other unusual reasons.

Hight testified Illinois Power could control industrial gas deliveries only with customer cooperation.

Fresh-Soph Grid Bout At JHS Field Tonight

The freshman-sophomore football team which will represent Jacksonville high school against Beards-town's fresh-soph gridgers tonight at J.H.S. field will show approximately the same starters who performed so well against Winchester here two weeks ago.

Coach Hal Wimberly and Parrel Patterson yesterday revealed their lineup for the clash, which is slated for 7 p. m.

The one change in starters for Jacksonville is in the backfield, where Bill Birdsell has been named at right halfback in place of Bill Sabatini. However, Sabatini will probably see considerable action.

Bruce Samore, who was probably the most impressive runner against the Wildcats, will again be at right halfback. Norman McQueen and Ronnie Campbell will complete the backs, running from quarter and full respectively.

The Crimsons' line is big and mobile for an underclassman group. At ends the reserve coaches have Bill Williams and Dick Flynn. Ruei Becker and John Rhodes will be the tackles, while Earl Cole and Johnny Walker will handle the guard assignments. Jerry Cruse is again slated to go at center.

The J. H. S. yearlings will be out to chalk up their second consecutive win. They licked Winchester, 38-0. Two more combats are on the Jacksonville slate, both away. They play both Beards-town and Winchester again.

THE Loves of Carmen
By SOPHIE KERR
Copyright, 1948, NEA SERVICE, INC.
Serialization of screenplay from a novel by Prosper Merimee

THE STORY: Don Jose, young officer in a fashionable Spanish regiment, has just come to Seville from the countryside of Navarre. He becomes enamored of the bewitching gypsy, Carmen. When he tries to make love to her, Carmen's bonds catch on his tunic and break. This had often frightened the gypsy and, remembering the fortune teller who predicted a love-death for her, she turns on Jose. "You're the one—I know it. Stay away from me!" she screams.

XIV
CARMEN slammed the door and locked it. Then she leaned against it panting, exhausted. When she saw Don Jose's helmet, rap and sword she ran for them, throwing the helmet and sword violently out of the window into the street below. Then she returned for the cape, but as she started towards the window with it she hesitated, stopped in front of the mirror and draped it over one shoulder. She appraised the effect, found it becoming and turned around and around, preening and admiring herself in it. Then she became aware that the serenade music had stopped and she walked to the window slowly, to see below her Don Jose slowly picking up his helmet and sword.

Carmen moved more fully into the window opening. An uncertain look came into her eyes but she called softly, "Joseito—wait!" It was the first time she had ever called him by name.

Their eyes met across the distance. The musicians watched silently. Then Don Jose turned back toward the doorway leading to Carmen's room. Carmen smiled, but it was not her usual assured, brazen smile. Instead, it was an oddly frightened, timid little smile.

The gypsy musicians started their serenade again. There was an extra note of passion and sadness in the music and their voices. Don Jose came back into the room. He slowly closed the door that Carmen had held open for him. He stood waiting, not quite certain of his ground.

Carmen spoke with a bewildered note in her voice. "I think I must be crazy—I don't know how to say it or how to tell you—"

Love has been told a thousand ways, so let it be. He remained where he was. "Come here, Carmen."

She went slowly toward him. THE night was clear over the heads of the gypsy musicians, and through its distance they could hear military boots striking the stone pavement. They stopped playing suddenly. The colonel, in full regalia, marched toward the house. The gypsies watched him in ominous silence, as he stopped before the building, looked up at the window. Then, as one who knows the way, he went up the back stairs.

Carmen was on the couch, her head turned toward Don Jose who sat on the floor. His hands were on her face, and as she talked, he followed her words with his fingers on her lips, her eyes, her lips again. He was like a blind and deaf man, listening and seeing by the touch of his hands. Carmen's voice was soft and eager, her eyes were warm and loving. "We will go away to the mountains, Joseito. We will—"

Jose shook his head slowly from side to side, his voice as low as hers. "No, you will stay here with me. I am a soldier. A good soldier does not desert his post, and from here on out, I am going to be a very good soldier, Carmenita."

He took her face in his hands and bent to kiss her. Carmen looked at him and shook her head as he had shaken his, slowly, firmly. "No, you will come with me to the mountains, where we—"

THE door crashed open before her, banging against the wall, and her eyes went past Don Jose, widened, then narrowed. Don Jose turned to look over his shoulder, immediately leaped to his feet. The colonel slowly closed the door, staring at Don Jose with arrogant eyes. "Get out!" he said.

Don Jose was too stunned to move or speak. "I order you to leave! Report to me in the morning!" Carmen shrieked out at him in answer. "I order YOU to leave! Carmen is not here!"

The colonel moved into the room menacingly and said, "She was here yesterday—she was here and I was here."

Don Jose backed away before the colonel's advance. Carmen sneered. "Ha! Spurred and crested like an old rooster, and crowing like one, too."

The colonel's glance flicked over Don Jose, and he put his hand on his sword. His voice was cold and deadly as he spoke. "You will be court-martialed in the morning, of course, but in the meantime, I think you need a little lesson. You need to be taught that a boy does not intrude on a man's preserve." He drew his sword. "On guard!"
